

Islip, NY – Islip Town Supervisor Phil Nolan recently joined with Town Historian Robert Finnegan in presenting “Supervisors’ Awards” to individuals and organizations for their efforts in preserving Islip’s history throughout the Town.

The Supervisors’ Awards are named in honor of several Islip Town Supervisors who have made a significant contribution to preserving Islip’s history. They are the Peter Fox Cohalan History Award for restoration and preservation; the Michael A. LoGrande History Award for planning and design; the Tredwell Scudder/Benajah Strong History Award for an organization within Islip Town and the Carl Starace History Award for research, writing and/or authorship including multi-media production of local history.

“This awards ceremony gives us an opportunity to honor some wonderful residents and organizations that help to preserve our wonderful Town’s history for future generations to enjoy and appreciate,” said Supervisor Nolan.

Pictured (left to right, front row) are Judge Peter Fox Cohalan, President of the Bay Shore Historical Society; Robert Hancock; John Williams; Stephanie Walter Williams; Nancy Donahue and Judge Larry Donahue of the Sagtikos Manor Historical Society; Thomas Roberts III of Friends of the Fire Island Lighthouse; and Islip Town Historian Robert Finnegan. Pictured (left to right back row) Islip Town Supervisor Phil Nolan; Councilman Gene Parrington; Town Clerk Regina Duffy; and Councilman Steve Flotteron.